To Whoever Takes Responsibility for Final Arrangements

In calm recognition of the inevitable, I have given thought to my personal wishes concerning my final arrangements. I feel that the effort I have made to pull information together and state my wishes will minimize the emotional strain on my survivors. I do not wish them to be burdened by the great pressures of having to make immediate decisions on unfamiliar matters that inescapably must be made then if I do not make them now.

Difficult though it may be for me to set this down, I feel that my loved ones would find it more difficult to make the decisions with no indication of my specific wishes.

Though these wishes may not be legally binding, I trust that they will help my survivors avoid confusion, extra expense, or the least self-reproach that might arise because of doubts, omissions, or commissions.

Final Arrangements

Remembering all those poorly planned funerals I have attended and also the truly beautiful and inspiring ones, I make the following plans. I intend my service to reflect my life, loves, and values.

Circumstances permitting, I wish my Burial Service to take place at:

Policy regarding acceptance of flowers within religious buildings vary. Instead of sending flowers, many prefer to encourage a more lasting memorial. Most religious groups have both a general memorial fund and a building fund, as do many charities. Memorial gifts may also be made to the Bay Area Ridge Trail Council. (If you so desire, please indicate where you would like to have such contributions made.)

I prefer to be:

- Buried
- Cremated
- Before or  After the funeral

I have made arrangements to have certain parts or all of my body donated to:

A List of Where Things Are Located

At the time of a person's sudden illness or death, family members or friends are often faced with the need for certain information. It is extremely helpful for them to have access to a record of insurance papers, marriage and birth certificates, bank account numbers, investments, etc. For married couples, each spouse should compile separate information and prepare separate documents, although many of the materials will be the same.

The following check list will allow your loved ones to locate crucial documents and information at the time of incapacitation or death. It is important to keep the list up to date. Make sure by at least one other family member or a close friend knows where this list is. Review the information periodically, preferably with the person(s) who must use the information. We suggest that you make one or more copies of the following list after completing it. Keep one copy in the organizer and put others in sealed envelopes and give them to trusted persons.
